Project number:

ABOUT THE PROJECT

CriThink Project want to find good examples from other countries from different parts of Europe.

In order to discuss the framework as broad as possible, the emphasis was on making all invited partners pay attention to this topic, but in a different way.

We hope that the know-how will be exchanged and the synergies between partners have been found despite their cultural and historical differences.

The primary target group of the CriThink Project are adults/seniors 55+ , who often don't have much experience of processing and evaluating large amounts of information coming from the Internet.

EXPECTED OUTPUTS

- good/best practices when teaching the older adults;
- methods and learning styles for that particular target group;
- basic specification of cognitive distortion;
- preparation of documents and suggestions for ICT toolbox;
